1. A still figure is resting on the beach. He is peaceful. His eyes are closed. The music begins after a few seconds.

2. He eventually hears the music. His smile disappears, and his left eye opens.

3. He becomes angry, frustrated. The music doesn't seem to stop or change.

4. He looks at the camera with half-open eyes, now angry. He takes out earmuffs and puts them on. The music gets softer.

5. He eventually notices the music once more and opens his eyes. His face turns red.

6. He looks to the side and says his first.

7. He reaches down and pulls out a gun and fires. The music abruptly ceases. He uses coconut instead.

8. He puts away the gun, lies back, closes his eyes, and smiles.

9. Final shot: we see a dead violinist. (Then credits)
